

THE DAY IN DAVENPORT

Case Closed: No One Hurt—Occupants of both cars escaped serious injury, when a Buick touring car crashed into a Ford at Fourth and Warren streets early yesterday morning and the lighter car was overturned by the impact.

The Buick, driven by F. J. Forsythe, an employee of the Martin Cigar company at the Davenport hotel, was west bound on Fourth street, while the Ford, piloted by H. Town, 1313 West Seventh street, was turning west on Fourth from Warren street.

Two Held Up—Tom Hampden and John Hayes, 1219 1/2 West Third street, were held up by two bandits Sunday night, and when the robbers discovered that their victims were broke, they administered a beating while Hampden and Hayes cried for help and then fled.

About 9 o'clock police received a call from a resident near the foot of Myrtle street to the effect that there were two men screaming for help and demanding that some one "throw a gun out of the window so we can protect ourselves."

Steel Cigarettes—Several thousand cigarettes, four boxes of cigars and $31.80 in cash composed the booty obtained by burglars who, Saturday night, raided the Har-Cen-Art confectionery store, at 1316 Harrison street. The robbery was discovered Sunday morning. Detectives are working on the case.

The prowlers removed the screen from a rear window, and drilled a hole in the sash. The window was then unlocked and the yeggs entered. Besides the cigars, cigarettes and cash, the robbers stole a 32-caliber revolver, blue steel.

Plunder Show Case—Merchandise thieves Sunday night plundered the show case of the Miller & Greenleaf store, 211 West Second street, and made their getaway with five flannel shirts. Police are investigating.

The robbery was discovered early Monday morning by employees of the store, who found the door swinging idly in the wind, and the case empty. Five flannel shirts, which were on display were gone.

Wife Is a Flier—Claiming that his wife was a "good deal of a flier" and given to seeking the company of other men, Allen T. Smith filed suit for divorce from Alice Smith in district court yesterday.

In addition to being a flier Mrs. Smith is accused of abusing her two stepchildren, both of whom are afflicted with locomotor ataxia.

Machines Collide—Fred G. Stebbins, 630 West Eighth street, driving east on Fourth street, crashed into a mail wagon and team at the entrance to the postoffice drive early yesterday morning, and the wagon was overturned by the impact. No one was injured in the accident, and the horses also escaped hurts.

Stebbins was not driving fast, according to his story, and his car struck the rear wheel of the heavy vehicle. He drove away after giving his name and address to the driver. The accident occurred at 1:45.

Dropped in To Shop—Gliding down onto Wallace field Sunday afternoon, Clarence Braukmann, a pilot from Cheyenne, Wyo., asked to see the airplane motor, which had been the subject of correspondence with Wallace Brothers during the previous week. Braukmann had written asking if Wallace Brothers had any motors to sell. They have the largest stock in the state, and they responded and told him what they had. He wrote that he would fly over to Davenport from Cheyenne and pick out one. He returned home later in the afternoon.

Enforce Milk Edict—Hereafter when dairymen in Davenport distribute milk that is found to be below standard their licenses will be revoked, according to the statement made by Dairy Inspector High this morning. Inspector High has received instructions from State Milk Inspector Barney to that effect.

Death Record—Word has been received by Ralph G. Cunningham of East Moline of the death of his father, Frank Cunningham of Auburn, Wash., which occurred at a Tacoma, Wash., hospital Saturday, after an illness of six weeks. Mr. Cunningham was born at Eldridge, Iowa, Oct. 15, 1871.

EX-EMPRESS WORSE—Doorn, Holland, Nov. 30.—Augusta Victoria, the former German empress, who has been suffering from a grave heart attack for some time, was much worse this morning. She had a high fever and was only semi-conscious.

Frederick William, former crown prince, has again been summoned, and this morning was hurrying from Wieringen to his mother's bedside.

SMALLEST ELK WEBS—Streator, Ill., Nov. 30.—News reached here yesterday of the marriage of Robert Schurman, an ice dealer of this city, and Mrs. Nellie Gray of Chicago, at Clearwater, Fla. Mr. Schurman, who is about thirty-six inches tall, is reputed to be the smallest Elk in the United States. His wife is nearly twice his height and weight.

WOMEN TO PLAN ON PRESS CLUB

Tri-City Newspaper Workers to Organize at Hotel Blackhawk Tomorrow

Women of the press of the three cities will meet at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening at the Hotel Blackhawk, Davenport, in their first attempt to organize a tri-city women's press club. The meeting is being called by Mrs. Carolyn Ogilvie, who is in Davenport now and has been in newspaper and magazine work for years.

Fifty women of the four tri-city papers will meet tomorrow.

DELAY PEACE FACTS—Warsaw, Nov. 30.—(United Press)—Russian delegates at Riga are delaying the signing of peace agreements, the Polish government charged today in a wireless message to the soviet government.

Going over the heads of the Russian peace delegates, Polish officials proposed directly to the signing of a permanent peace and that the two nations begin discussion of military guarantees.

HUMOR BY WINE

New York—James F. Kelly, 72, wealthy banker who traveled from Argentina to Boston just to vote for Harding, is bound for South America and hopes to exchange wireless greetings with the president-elect.

Cleveland, Ohio—It looked like a riot until the police found that the several hundred citizens were, applying at the city hall for three jobs as whiskey testers.

Chicago—Here's a man with lots of hope. Harry Greengard leased a building for 10 years and inserted a clause which gave him the right to sell liquor "if the 18th amendment is repealed."

Houston, Texas—Judge Monteth refused to make Houston the Reno of the south. He's issued orders no divorces will be granted unless witnesses prove the allegations of the divorce seeker.

DELTAUT, That pecan confection, made of rich, pure nougat and wholesome caramel, rolled in the finest pecans. A rare treat.
